The William D. Ruckelshaus Center Foundation advances the Center’s mission and vision by securing and managing private support. Philanthropy is critical to the Center’s work. Gifts from individuals and organizations provide the financial independence that reinforces the Center’s neutrality and ability to quickly respond to areas of need without waiting for grants or contracts. Supporting the Center is an investment in the quality of life in our state and region, and qualifies for donor credit at both WSU and UW.

Ways to Give

Gifts of any size are important to provide a stable and predictable source of funding. There are a number of ways you can make a gift to the William D. Ruckelshaus Center, including:

- Gifts of cash or by credit card
- Gifts of stock
- Gift planning

Chairman’s Circle

Gifts of $1,000 or above qualify for the Chairman’s Circle, a group of the Center’s most dedicated supporters. Membership includes invitations to special events.

William D. Ruckelshaus Center Gates Excellence Fund

This discretionary fund provides the William D. Ruckelshaus Center with unrestricted support that allows us to meet the most pressing needs and take advantage of emerging opportunities. Donations to this fund are matched up to $75,000 dollars per year by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation.

William D. Ruckelshaus Center Endowment for Excellence

This endowment supports the long-term priorities of the William D. Ruckelshaus Center and provides stability. Donations to this endowment allow your gift to continue to have impact in perpetuity.

You can make your gift by mailing the form at right or online at www.ruckelshauscenter.wsu.edu/support.html.
The Ruckelshaus Center is hosted at the University of Washington by the Daniel J. Evans School of Public Affairs and at Washington State University by WSU Extension. It is guided by an advisory board of prominent local, state and regional leaders representing a broad range of constituencies and geographic locations. The board is chaired by William Ruckelshaus.

Double your impact. Did you know that many employers match charitable contributions? Most matching gifts count toward your giving level at UW and WSU.

Submit a matching gift request to your employer or enclose a matching gift form with your donation. Not sure if your company has a matching gift policy? Ask your company’s Human Resources (HR) department.

Thank you for your interest in supporting the William D. Ruckelshaus Center Foundation.
